To Our Valued Customers,

RR Floody is open for business and committed to maintaining a safe and healthy workplace for our employees while helping our customers to do the same during the COVID-19 outbreak.

While the current protective restrictions limit our ability to work with you at your facilities, we do understand that work needs to get done. Our team would like you to consider teleconferencing, video conferencing, sending drawings, pictures or anything else that will help us move your projects forward. We have a number of virtual tools available to make this as easy as possible.

We understand that the health and safety of our employees, customers and all of our families is of the utmost importance during this COVID-19 outbreak. We thank you for your patience and will continue to provide the excellent service you can expect from us during this challenging time. We are here to help.

Sincerely,

Karl Floody
CEO
